

Watercolor Workshop

Presented by the Laurel Art Guild, Laurel, MD

With Fritz Briggs

Faculty Scholar - Schuler School of Fine Arts

Fritz Briggs attended Frostburg State College, then graduated from the Maryland Institute College of Art with a BFA degree. After serving two years as an illustrator for the Department of Social Sciences at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, he began teaching watercolor at the Schuler School. In 1968, Briggs was elected to the coveted American Watercolor Society, and is an active member of the Baltimore Watercolor Society where he has twice been president. In 1973, he had the distinction of being elected to the Salmagundi Club in New York and is

Mr. Briggs will offer a choice of subject and will do a watercolor demonstration. However, students may choose to paint whatever subject they like. Mr. Briggs will assist everyone, as needed. He will critique the work of those who choose, at the end of the class.
